THE MONDAY REPORT

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
JUNIOR COLLEGE DIVISION
202 SKYLAND BLVD
TUSCALOOSA, ALABAMA 35405

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
Record Series: Campus Newspaper
File: EG 1-12-5
Date: 9-29-95

October 24, 1983
Lucy Kubiszyn, Editor

****

NOTICE TO JUNIOR COLLEGE FACULTY:

An in-service meeting will be held on Wednesday, October 26, at 8:15 a.m. in room 85. Shirley Woodie, Assistant to the President, George C. Wallace State Community College, Dothan, and Nathan Essex, professor, Area of Administration and Educational Leadership, University of Alabama, will talk to the faculty on establishing a formal planning program for the college. Because of recommendation from various self-study committees, the college is embarking upon a program of formal planning under the auspices of the President's Planning Council.

****

SCREAM IN THE DARK IS BACK

Campus Life is bringing "Scream in the Dark" back to Tuscaloosa. Located at the Teen Center on 15th street across from University Mall, Campus Life will hold "Scream in the Dark" on Thursday - Saturday nights, October 27 - 29, and Monday night, October 31. Anyone bringing this issue of the MONDAY REPORT with them will receive a fifty cent reduction in the admission price.

For more information, contact Andi Clements, 758-1640, or the Campus Life Teen Center, 758-8336.

****

STUDENT LIFE MEETS

Shelton's Student Life Committee will hold its first meeting of the year on Thursday, October 27, at 1:30 p.m. Any student interested in being a member of Student Life should come to the meeting in Dean Lee's office.

All clubs and organizations of the college are asked to send someone to represent them on the Student Life Committee. Since there is no student governing body at Shelton, this is a way for all organizations to have a voice in school affairs.

****

FROM THE FIRE COLLEGE

The Alabama State Fire College's annual minimum standards school ended last week and a reception was held Friday for all the participants and their families. On hand for the festivities were the local fire chiefs, Fire College personnel. Slides showing events of the school were shown....A Basic Pump Operator school will be held this week in Tuscaloosa. This is the first of two pump apparatus operator schools and is designed for the fire fighter with little or no previous experience as a pump operator.

****

TECHNICAL TALK

The Technical Division of Shelton State Community College will begin a series of classes using the new micro computers. The classes will begin on Tuesday, November 29, and continue twice weekly. There well be twelve people in the class. If you are interested in enrolling in the class, call 556-1143....A class for instructors and office personnel interested in learning to use the new micro computers will begin in the near future.

BSU SCHEDULES TWO WEEKLY MEETING

The Baptist Student Union is scheduling two weekly meetings in order to attract more students to the organization. The BSU will continue meeting Thursday at 12:30 p.m. in room 87. However, beginning this week the BSU will schedule another meeting at 10 a.m. in Dean Lee's office, room 12. All students are invited to join.

Faculty advisors are Martha Ann Black, Wade Cooper, and Humphrey Lee. Campus minister is Charely Barnes.

****

"ANNIE" OPENS THURSDAY

"Annie," the popular musical about the loveable orphan, opens Thursday at the Bama Theatre for a four-day run. Tickets are currently on sale and may be purchased by calling the box office, 758-5195.

Performances are scheduled every evening, Thursday through Sunday, at 8 p.m. A 10 a.m. performance is scheduled for Saturday and a 2:30 p.m. matinee on Sunday. "Annie" is under the direction of Paul K. Looney, artistic director for Tuscaloosa Community Players and instructor of drama at Shelton State Community College.

****

A SHORT SUCCESS STORY

Wonder what happens to former Shelton students? Some like Kay Ryan continue to succeed in their endeavors. Kay, a student at Shelton several years ago, was selected the "outstanding art student" while here, studying under Shelton art instructor Dr. Bethany Engle. After leaving Shelton, Kay went on to the University of Alabama earning a B.S. degree in art education. Currently working on her masters degree, Kay teaches in the Youth Art Program at the University as well as a class in design in the school of Home Economics. The MONDAY REPORT likes to report success stories so keep us posted.

****

UAB'S HEALTH CAREER DAY

The University of Alabama in Birmingham will have a Health Career Day at the Regional Technical Institute (RTI), 1700 9th Avenue South on Thursday, November 10, 1983. If you are interested in attending, contact Mary Anne. Z. Thomas in the counseling center by November 1 to make a reservation. The following careers will be highlighted: Anesthesia for Nurses; Biomedical equipment Technology; Cytotechnology; Dental Assissting; Dental Hygiene; Dental Laboratory Technology; Dentistry; Emergency Medical Services; Graduate Studies; Hospital and Health Administration; Medical Assistant; Medical Records; Medical Technology; Medicine; Multiple Competency Clinical Technician; Nuclear Medicine Technology; Nursing; Nutrition and Dietetics; Occupational Therrpy; Optometry; Physical Therapy Radiation Therapy Technology; Radiologic Technology Respiratory Therapy; and Surgeion's Assistant.

****

MUSICAL CONCERT PLANNED

Shelton's music department will sponsor its first concert of the year this Wednesday, October 26, at 11 a.m. in the musci room. The University of Alabama's brass quintet will be featured on the program. Faculty members in the quintet are: Mike Johnson, first trumpet; Neal Webb, second trujmpet; Greg Leffler, horn; Dan Drill, trombone; and Terry Gater, baritone.

All Shelton faculty and students are encouraged to attend.

****